Dear HR Representative:

Please find attached my resume in response to your career posting for Senior User Experience (UX) Designer. Per my resume, you will find that I have over fifteen years of extensive User Interface (UI), and User Experience. The professions I recently described would directly support the career opportunity you are advertising.

I am aware of quality standards to meet and exceed client expectations. With this combined professional background, I feel I would be a strong candidate for your position.

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to speaking with you soon.

Sincerely,

Franco Haley
Product Designer
